straight-out answer, but a minute later, he answered the question quite as satisfactorily even if it was in a roundabout way. He was speaking of the Intelligencer table of gubernatorial preferences, which as printediast Saturday morning, gave him almost as many votes as all the other candidates. He claimed that the table does not represent nearly all-his strength. Particularly was he confident of getting more votes in the Second district counties than are credited to him. If he gets what he intimates are for him, there is not the least doubt but that he will be nominated in a whirl on the first halot. For figures, however, he referred the Intelligencer to his friends.

"I would like to have the Intelligencer however, he referred the Intelligencer to his friends.

"I would like to have the Intelligencer deny a statement that has been going the rounds for some time," said the candidate. "It has been said that I have pledged almost every state office in the sit of the governor to ertain of my supporters in return for that support. This is entirely untrue. When I entered the campaign months ago I made up my mind to make a clean fight and promise nothing. I have stuck to that resolution, and have promised nothing. It has been said that I have already promised the office of secretary of state to Mr. Chilton, a statement that is false, A delegate from your part of the state who was for me until recently, withdrew his support because I refused to allow him to dictate the patronage of one of the state institutions."

BENNETT'S BOOMERS

Will Reach Wheeling this Afternoon.
Confident Their Man will be Nominated on the Second or Third Hallot-Say
Watts will Surely be Defeated. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer

WESTON, W. Va., August 9.-The same activity that has marked the movements of the managers of Judge Bennett's boom for governor for the past week, was continued to-day, and the fact that the day is Sunday has apparently made no difference to those who have the judge's "boomlet" in charge. The only perceptible difference was that the out of town callers charge. The only perceptible difference was that the out of town callers were not so many as on previous days, but around headquarters all is bustle and hurry.

I am reliably informed that the Bennett people have information to the effect that Watts' forces will go to pleces after the first ballot. Telegrams have been received from all-parts of the state, pledging support to Judge Bennett after the first ballot. The Bennett people claim a hundred and fifty votes on the first ballot. The Bennett people claim a hundred and fifty votes on the first ballot. It is certainly a fact that Bennett stock has made a wonderful jump upwards within the past few days, and it is very apparent here that the knowing ones wear a very confident air and have evidently received great encouragement within the past few days.

One of the arguments advanced by the Bennett boomers is that the feeling between the Watts and Balphsnyder forces is such that it would never do to mominate either of them and that consequently. Bennett is the logical candidate of the situation. They claim that they are making a clean campaign and have nothing, personally, to say against either Messrs, Watts or Ralphsynder.

I asked one of Judge Bennett's lieutenants to-night if he thought General and have nothins, personally, to say against either Mesers. Watts or Ralphsynder.

I asked one of Judge Bennett's lieutenants to-night if he thought General Watts would get the nomination on the first ballot. He hosted at the idea and said Bennett would get several counties on the first ballot, which the Watts people claimed. He also added:

"You may say to the Intelligencer that it can announce authoritatively, that there will be no nomination for governor on the first ballot. We have information which makes that fact positively certain. We have only one claim to make and that is that Judge Bennett will surely be nominated on the second or third ballot."

There is a very decided disposition in all parts of the state to take things out of the hands of the Kanawha machine, and give another part of the state a show. Lewis county will send a big delegation to Wheeling to "talk Rennett" and work for his nomination. The delegation will leave to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock and expect to arrive in Wheeling at 5 o'clock to-morrow afteracon. Judge Bennett will accompany them and will have headquarters at the McLure House.

THE ADVANCE GUARD

THE ADVANCE GUARD

Of Convention Leaders Arriving in the City-Mr. Watta One of the First to Open Headquarters-liotels will be Filled to Overflowing.

The city is filling with Democratic politicians from all parts of the statethe advance guard of the state and congressional conventions which are to be held here Tuesday and Wednesday. The Windsor and McLure already have engagements to their full capacity, and the Stamm, Howell and other hotels will be full-up before to-night. It is esti-mated the state convention will draw fully 2,000 strangers to the city. The delegates number 847 and as many counties have named alternates, the attendance of those directly interested in the convention will be fully 1,000. The other thousand will be spectators from all sections of the state.

The other thousand will be spectators from all sections of the state.

The first of the gubernatorial candidates to arrive in the city was Mr. Watts, of Charleston, who reached the city yesterday morning and registered at the Windsor. His room, No. 17, was at once the Mecca for a large proportion of the politicians already in the city. During the afternoon the Kanawha man held an almost continuous levee, and the ante-convention fight for the gubernatorial nomination was fairly under way.

Chairman W. E. Chilton, of the state committee, arrived in town yesterday morning and has established his headquarters at the McLure. He, too, was visited by scores of local and out-oftown Democrats who are affready here to attend the convention.

Another candidate who has arrived is Mr. W. H. Boggs, of Pendleton, one of the leading aspirants for auditor. He has rooms at the Windsor and is already "stirring his stumps" in great shope. Colonel Robert S. Carr, of Kanawha, another candidate for the nomination for auditor, has entrenched himself at the Windsor and was one of the centres of attraction, as usual.

Other leaders who arrived yesterday and are quartered at the Windsor are Ex-Congressman John D. Alderson, of Nicholas C. H., of the Third district; he is one of the Waits boomers; Griff T. Smith, of Point Pleasant, who takes a leave of absence from his duties in the commissioner of internal revenue's office; Conrad H. Syne, who also comes from the national capital; B. F. Oden, of Marthabourg; L. H. Kelley and W.E. R. Byrnes, of Braxton, Myer Newberger, of Parkersburg.

Among those who have engaged quarters at the Windsor are the follow-ing: E. L. Nash, of Parkersburg.

of Marthhours; L. H. Kelley and W.E. R. Byrnes, of Parkersburg.

Among those who have engaged quariers at the Windsor are the following: E. L. Nash, of Parkersburg, candidate for auditor; D. A. Dorsey, of Marshall, who wants to he state treasurer; two state "pen" directors, Captain Chipley, of Moorefeld, and Captain Chipley, of Moorefeld, and Captain A. C. Hall, of Charleston; Ex-National Committeeman John A. Sheridan, of Piedmont; General J. W. St. Clair, of Fayetie; Ex-Congressman James ("Farmer") Capehart, of Point Pleasant, of the Fourth district; Colonel John T. McGraw, of Grafton; State Treasurer J. M. Rowan, of Mooree, who seeks a re-nomination; Penitentiary Director John A. Melntosh, of Jackson; Adjulant General J. A. Holly, of Charleston; Toosecuting Attorney Charley Powell, S. L. Watson and Z. G. Morgan, of Fairmont; Camden Summers, of Clarksburg; Walter Pendieton, of Clarksburg; Walter Pendieton, of Clarksburg; Walter Pendieton, of Roane, just nominated by the Fourth Batrict Democrats and endorsed by the Populists; United States Marshall Dovener, a hard tussle should be re-discovered and the propulsts; United States Marshall Dovener, a hard tussle should be re-discovered and the propulsts; United States Marshall Dovener, a hard tussle should be re-discovered and the propulsts; United States Marshall Dovener, a hard tussle should be re-discovered and the propulsts; United States Marshall Dovener, a hard tussle should be re-discovered and the propulsts; United States Marshall Dovener, a hard tussle should be re-discovered and the propulsts; United States Marshall Dovener, a hard tussle should be re-discovered and the propulsts; United States Marshall Dovener, a hard tussle should be re-discovered and the propulsts.

Charley Wells, of Glover's Gap; O. N. Koen, of Manuington; Secretary of the State Committee William A. Ohley, of Charleston; Holly G. (Hully Gee) Armstrong, of Jackson; Judge George H. Umsted, of New Martinsville; Colonel Charence L. Smith, of Fairmont, one of the gubernatorial nomination candidates; It. S. Wilson, of Charleston; S. S. Green, of Charleston, an aspirant for the supreme dudgeahip nomination; J. A. de Gruyter, of Charleston, a "sachem" of the Kanawha Democracy; the inimitable C. Wood Daily, of Eikins; Professor A. J. Wilkinson, of Grafton, and Prof. Robert, A. Armstrong, of Monongala-Upshur, candidate for nomination for superintendent of schools.

The only two leaders of prominence at the McLure yesterday afternoon were State Chairman Chilton, and "Joe" Gallagber, of Marshall, The latter, was nursing his sheriffalty boom in good style.

Among those who will have their quarters at the McLure are the following; Postmaster J. Hoff Edwards, of Weston; C. C. Martin, of Parkersburg; H. W. Bulkey, of Weston; D. E. Wilkinson, of Lincoln; M. F. Shider, of West Union; J. J. Connell, of Romney; Dave Leonard, of Parkersburg; M. C. McKay, of Jackson; Thomas Davis, of Pledmont; Editor Lee H. Vance, of Clarksburg; J. V. Armstrong, of Ravenswood; Dr. W. D. Rowe, of the state insane asylum; Thomas L. Broun, of Charleston; J. H. Miller, of Hinton; Professor Wilson M. Foulk, of Pledmont; S. W. Brown, of Kanawha; Colonel Taylor Vinson C'sound money" Democrat), and ex-State Treasurer W. R. Thompson, of Huntington; W. C. Higginbotham, of Jacksen.

Watts May Get Cabell.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., August 9.—
It is believed that there have been some it is believed that there have been some changes in the complexion of the Cabell delegation to the Wheeling state Democratic convention lately. Formerly the delegation stood seventeen for Watts, nineteen for Raiphsnyder and two non-committal. It is believed that changes have taken place which may change the whole delegation to Watts, Under the unit rule, Raiphsnyder had the delegation, but it cannot safely be counted now for him.

Bennett Galus in Wood, cial Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., August 9. -Since Judge Bennett's avowed can---Since Judge Bennett's avowed candidacy, Wood county's delegation to the state Democratic convention has experienced a material change, which greatly affects Watts' support from this county. However, Watts' has a small majority over Bennett and Ralphsnyder follows both closely. A prominent Democratic politician states that Wood county's vote will be distributed as follows: Watts thirteen; Bennett, ten; and Ralphsnyder, seven.

THREE COUNTIES WILL BOLT

From Watts Instructions and Go Over to the Bennett Camp.

Last night the Intelligencer received the information from a very good source to the effect that the delegations of Gilmer, Pocahentas and Web-ster counties will bolt their Watts inster counties will boil their Watts in-structions and vote for Judge Hennert on the first ballot. The Watts men de-ny the truth of this statement, but there is no doubt they fear a stam-pede from their leader and are doing everything possible to prevent it. Whether or not they will succeed re-mains to be seen.

CHAIRMAN CHILTON

Says There is No Doubt of the Nomination of Watts.

State Chairman William E. Chilton when seen yesterday afternoon, said that there is no doubt whatever of the momination of General Watts on the first ballot. While he had no figures to give out for publication, he said Watts would have all the votes necessary and some to spare. He says the active canvass made by his leade is bound to bear fruit to the extent of a good round majority in the convention.

Virgil Lewis Arrives.

Last evening's arrivals included Hon. Virgil A. Lewis, state superintendent of free schools, who came up from Charleston with a force of "boomera." He had established headquarters at the Stamm house. He is hopeful and confident of the result of his contest for a re-nomination.

ARE FOR MEIGHEN.

The Unit Rule to be Enforced in the Mar shall County Judicial Delegation.

At a meeting of the Republican coun-ty executive committee of Marshall county, held in the court house at Moundsville, on Saturday, the follow-ing preamble and resolution were ing preamble and resolution were adopted:

"Whereas, On the 32rd day of June, 1896, James E. Hooton and B. F. Meighen, candidates for judge of the circuit court of the First judicial circuit of West Virginia, appeared before the Republican county executive committee of Marshall county, West Virginia, in session, with the view of obtaining a united delegation for one candidate from said county for said position and entered into a contract that said Hooton and Meighen would make a friendly context in the county at the district primary conventions to be held July 11, 1896, each selecting delegates to be voted for at all voting precincts in the county, and the candidate who should voted for at all voting precincts in the county, and the candidate who should succeed in electing sufficient delegates to represent a majority of the votes in succeed in electing sufficient delegates to represent a majority of the votes in the county, taking as a basis the vote of Captain B. B. Dovener for Congress in 1894, shall be the sole candidate for Marshall county, and the unit rule shall be adopted, giving said candidate the united support of all delegates elected by either candidate to the judicial convention, so long as there was any prospect of his nomination, and it appearing to said Republican county executive committee that the delegates elected for B. F. Meighen represent a majority of said votes, and James E. Hooton having withstrawn from said contest in accordance with said contract, it is hereby Resolved, That B. F. Meighen is the nominee for Marshall county for judge of the circuit court in the First judicial circuit of West Virginta, and is entitled to receive the unanimous support of the delegates in the sold county.

ial circuit of West Virginia, and is en-titled to receive the unanimous support of the delegates in the said county, elected July 11, 1896, to the judicial con-vention to be held in the city of Wheel-ins, Aug 13, 1896, and the vote of said delegates shall be east as a unit for said B. F. Meighen, unless at any time during the convention it becomes man-ifest to a majority of 'the delegation that he cannot be nominated.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

Mr. Pendleton Seems to be the Leading Candidate.

Last night some interest was dis-played in the First district Democratic congressional convention, which convenes in the Mozart park pavillon ceive the nomination, Colonel Woodford is a warm admirer of Captain Dovener, who was als committee cierk many years ago when the state capitol was located here and Colonel Woodford was a member of the legislature.

Editor Sperry, of the Clarksburg Tribune, is an active candidate, as is also W. W. Scott, of Harrison county, an ex-newspaper man, now a lawyer, Colonel W. M. (Wild Bill) Kincald, of Cameron, who disputes with Colonel Woodford, the title of "Original Free Silver Man," in the state, is another candidate. Still another is Hon, A. A. Lewis, of Weston, who will be here to-day. A receptive candidate is Colonel W. W. Arnett, of this city. At any rate it's an even thing a "colonel" will get there.

BERKELEY REPUBLICANS

Open Their Campaign—Mr. Dayton and Mr. Hart Speak to Enthusiastic Crowds. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 9. The Republican campaign in this county was opened yesterday at the convention to nominate county officers, Hon. W. H. II. Flick was chairman of the conven-tion and L. DeW. Gerhardt secretary. These nominations were made: For sherff, James H. Smith; delegate to the legislature, James B. Small; prosecuting attorney, U. S. G. Pitzer; clerk of the sherff, James H, Smith; delegate to the legislature, James B, Small; proaccuting attorney, U. S. G. Pitzer; clerk of the county court, L. L. Bender; clerk of the circuit court, L. DeW, Gerhardt; assessors, C. L. Nicely and Daniel Fulk; county surveyor, I. W. Wood; county commissioner, Joseph Fiscus, The tieket is regarded as exceptionally strong, all the nominess being representative men of high standing.

Resolutions were adopted indorsing the platform and ticket of the national Republican convention and that of the state convention.

Pending the report of the committee on resolutions Hon. C. B. Hart, of Wheeling, was introduced. He was sliven an enthusiastic reception, and although the temperature in the hall stood at 160 the crowd remained and gave him the closest attention. Mr. Hart discussible of the silver question, addressing himself particularly to the farmers, and showed the perniclous effects to the agricultural interests of the free colonge of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 if enseted into a law. At the conclusion of his speech therewere loud calls for Congressionan Dayton, who was seated on the stage. Mr. Dayton responded in a few remarks, which were enthuslastically received.

At night a trenendous meeting was held in the public square under the auspices of the Abruham Lincoln Republican club. There was great enthusiasm. Mr. W. N. Linch presided, assisted by Mr. U. S. G. Pitzer. Both Mr. Hart and Congressman Dayton spoke. The former discussed the free colnage of silver question in all its aspects and made an able and convincing argument in favor of the Republican doctrine. Mr. Dayton discussed the Isaues of the campaign in detail. These issues on the Republican side are, he said, protection, reciprocity and sound money, and pitted against them is a platform that favors free trade, a depreciated currency and a communistic attack upon the institutions of the country.

In conclusion he said it was the duty of every honest citizen to vote for sixteen things, namely; honesty, good faith, security, truth
